

Organizational : Overview

Since inception the Sask. WTF has witnessed many developments:

- International Olympic Committee (IOC) recognized WTF Taekwondo as the official sport governing body for Taekwondo at the Olympics.
- Canadian Olympic Association (COA) and Sport Canada recognized Taekwondo Canada as the official sport governing body for Taekwondo in Canada.
- Sask. WTF is a member of Taekwondo Canada.
- WTF Taekwondo is a medal sport at the Pan-Am Games, World Military Games and World University Games.
- The World Tae Kwon Do Federation holds its World Championships every two years encompassing 168 member nations. Several Saskatchewan athletes have participated in this event.
- Sask. WTF organizes an annual Provincial Championship and many seminars to improve the quality of our competitors and officials.
- The Sask. WTF supports its members at competitions through-out Canada as well as enabling them to progress as referees and instructors.
- The Sask. WTF's main focus is to provide financial and technical support so that members can achieve their goals.
- Equipment, training and competition programs available to students from entry level to advanced have been funded by Sask. WTF.

Please check out our Schools page for a WTF school near you.

Sask WTF Taekwondo objectives:

- Serve as the official Provincial Organization for WTF Taekwondo and Amateur Sport of Taekwondo in the province .
- Promote, foster and develop WTF Taekwondo in the province by assisting in and supporting the development of athletes, coaches, referees and officials;
- Provide leadership in the development of WTF Taekwondo both provincially, nationally and internationally;
- Cooperate with and assist Sask Sport so that the best interests of WTF Taekwondo are maintained and served;
- Aid and advise its members in the establishment of policies for the development of WTF Taekwondo;
- Maintain and preserve the tradition and heritage of the Art of WTF Taekwondo.